Here is an example of an inference.

Q) What can you infer from this image about medieval England?

I can infer that medieval England was cruel.

I know this because one man is being severely punished by having his arms stretched backwards above his head.

Inference – coming to a conclusion based on the evidence you have.

Primary source – first-hand information. E.G. diary entries, speeches, autobiographies, birth certificates, objects.

Secondary source/interpretation – something written about a primary source. E.G. Films, history books, biographies, teachers, websites

Describe – detailed paragraph about an aspect of.

Tollund Man

Where – peat bog in Denmark 1950

Possible cause of death – sacrifice

The German tribes hang traitors from trees and drown cowards in fens under piles of sticks

These items were found around the Tollund Man's neck. The items are a rope noose and an iron neck ring. Iron Age people buried neck rings with their dead as an offering to the Spring Goddess.

The German tribes worshiped the Goddess of Spring. Every Spring a cart carries a statue of the Goddess in a procession.

Afterwards the cart and statues were washed by slaves, and then the slaves were sacrificed.
